SEALS FATE OF COUNTY FAIR

County Council Refuses an Appropriation and Members of Board Say Exhibit Can't be Held

FORMAL ACTION EXPECTED

Held Likely That Ground Will be Sold to Pay Indebtedness—Two Councilmen Favorable

The county council this afternoon refused to appropriate the sum of $1,500 to the Rush County association, thus practically sealing the fate of the fair. Following the meeting several members of the fair board expressed themselves as favorable to selling the grounds to pay off the indebtedness. While nothing definite was done it is practically certain that there will be no Rush county fair the coming year.

Fon Riggs, A. L. Stewart, Noah Tryon and Albert Denning, representing the fair board waited upon the county council in an effort to get some money with which to carry on the fair. No definite amount was asked and on the motion of John F. McKee, county councilman, the amount was fixed at $1,500. On the vote taken two members voted favorably, two voted against it and two did not vote, thus killing the proposition as it required a two-third vote to pass.

The appeal was made to the county council in the light that the fair was a public enterprise and was for the benefit of the entire county. One of two members of the council probably would have favored the appropriation had the fair been made a free fair. There was some question as to whether the council had a right to appropriate the sum asked. Some

A. B. IRVIN FILES HIS DECLARATION TODAY

President of Farmers Trust Co., Announces he is Candidate for Republican Nomination

WOULD LIKE TO BE MAYOR

Arthur B. Irvin, president of the Farmers Trust Company, this afternoon filed his declaration of candidacy for the nomination of mayor on the republican ticket. Mr. Irvin will seek the nomination as a successful business man. It is believed he is well qualified for the position he seeks. Mr. Irvin practiced law for nineteen years and acted as city attorney for a term of eight successive years. By reason of this he believes himself well fitted for the conducting of police court. During his time as city attorney the city never lost a cent in litigation. He was in this position when the city water and light plant was organized, the first municipal plant in the state.

At that time the organization was attacked by a gas company and Mr. Irvin won out through the supreme court. Mr. Irvin has always been one of the progressive citizens of the community. He was largely instrumental in securing the first brick street for the city. He spent twenty-three days of his time and money in the legislature to prevent the repeal of the three-mile road law so that Main street might be built.

He organized Building Association No. 10 and has served as secretary of this organization for the past twenty-seven years. He has also served as cashier and president of the trust company for twenty-six years. Mr. Irvin promises a business administration if nominated and elected.

AUTO GOES THROUGH FENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Morton Hinchman and Mr. and Mrs. Al Sharp in Accident

Mr. and Mrs. Morton Hinchman and Mr. and Mrs. Al Sharp narrowly escaped serious injury last night when their machine left the road near the home of Frank Billings northeast of Rushville and crashed through a wire fence. The two couples were returning from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Morris where a large crowd had been spending the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Eakins passed shortly after the accident and helped them get home. The machine was slightly damaged.

GILSON GETS OUT ON $1,000 BOND

Arlington Man Will Probably Have to Stand Loss of Fine Paid to Carthage Squire

GARDNER IMPROVED TODAY

Robert Gilson of Arlington, who was arrested yesterday, on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill Lewis Gardner, also of Arlington, was released from jail late yesterday afternoon after securing bond in the sum of $1,000. Gardner, who received a broken nose and numerous bruises about the head and face, was somewhat improved today. The fight between Gilson and Gardner is said to have resulted because Gilson resented his recent indictment by the grand jury and blamed Gardner. Gardner was not even a witness before the grand jury. Gilson was fined on four charges and afterwards was dismissed from an Arlington lodge.

It appears that Gilson is out the sum of $5.35 which he paid Squire Bishop of Carthage. Immediately following the fight he went to Carthage and Squire Bishop accepted his plea of guilty. This was not according to law as the injured person must be present. Gilson thought he was out of the trouble and then the affidavit for assault and battery with intent to kill was filed.

TO GET BIDS ON NEW SALEM PIKE

County Commissioners This Afternoon Decide to Build the Frank Capp Highway.

PETITION HELD UP FOR YEAR

The county commissioners this afternoon ordered the county auditor to advertise for bids for the Frank Capp highway to be received March 5. This proposed highway is in Rushville township and if it goes through will be of concrete construction. The petition was presented last year, but other roads crowded it out when Rushville township became bonded to the limit of its indebtedness. The road is commonly called the New Salem pike and the improvement is said to be greatly needed.

The viewers and engineer submitted an additional report on this road raising the estimate over that made last year. This is because of the increase price of materials. It was believed that the road could not be built this year for what the estimate called for last year.

Sam Young and Charles Owen were appointed viewers for the Posey-Ripley township road.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKee and family of near Orange spent the day in this city.

CAMPAIGN TO BE CLOSED SUNDAY

Dr. J. A. McCuaig Will Address Three Meetings, First One Union Session for Young People

ANOTHER AT 7 AND AT 8:30

Story of John Erble is Vehicle by Means of Which Lecturer Teaches Powerful Lesson

Dr. J. Aspinall McCuaig of New York, will bring to a complete close, his work in Rushville with three addresses Sunday night. The first of these will be at 6:00 o'clock, in the First Presbyterian church, when he will address a mass meeting of young people on "Ever Learning."

At 7:00 o'clock, the regular hour of evening worship, Dr. McCuaig will preach in St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church on "How to Love."

The great closing meeting of Dr. McCuaig's brief campaign in this city will be held at 8:30 o'clock in the Main Street Christian church for both men and women. This will be a union meeting of all the Rushville churches, and at this time Dr. McCuaig will deliver his celebrated lecture "Mistakes about Marriage."

In the discussion of "Mistakes about Marriage" Sunday night matter will be under consideration that will in a novel way, appeal to all from the shop girl who works for a few dollars a week to the most advanced student of sociology.

Last night Dr. McCuaig spoke to a large congregation an "A Twentieth Century Tragedy—The Hanging of John Erble."

Dr. McCuaig, laid the foundation for his address by outlining the principle of control that must be developed in every life from the cradle if a strong effective manhood is to be realized.

In few words he introduced John Erble, who on the morning of the third of February two years ago, paid the death penalty in Williamsport, Pa., jail for the murder of Grace Stidole.

"When I speak of the state tonight," Dr. McCuaig declared, "I mean it—the state in the broadest sense—the community."

"John Erble was born twenty-nine years ago, with all the native forces within him common to men—hunger, temper, sexual instinct. But the state was not interested in these forces in the child. The state was interested in the preservation of forests, the protection of game, the stocking of rivers, the jailing of drunkards, the quarantining of disease, and the discussion of feeble-mindedness and epilepsy. But in these seed forces in the child the state had no interest. So John Erble grew up untaught."

"And the neglect of the state was not all. The state provided John Erble with whiskey. And there was no standard of whiskey. And many of the houses in which the state provided whiskey had pictures of nude women hanging over the bar."

"And the state that provided whiskey fostered bawdy houses. There were laws against bawdy houses, but there were other laws in which they were recognized and encouraged. And John Erble became infatuated with a woman. It was the infatuation of a passionate man. It was after the infatuation of a drink-frenzied man. It was the infatuation of an uncontrolled mind. And out of a score of orgies, John Erble shot the woman, brutally—once, twice, thrice. He shot her in a bawdy house because she would not leave the bawdy house for him—jealous—mad—blind—with passion."

TERM OF COURT IS ENDED TODAY

November Term is Brought to a Close and February Term Will Open Week From Monday

MAY DIVORCE IS REFUSED

Decree, However, is Granted C. D. Nickel From Lillian Nickel—Guardian for A. Winship

The November term of court was brought to a close today. The term has been a busy one, a large amount of business both probate and civil being transacted. There will be no court next week and the February term will start on Monday, February 5.

Judge Sparks today refused a divorce to Mrs. Hazel May from Walter May. Additional evidence was introduced in this case last Saturday, tending to show that Mrs. May was seen "joy-riding" on the night before the case was called for trial. The costs were assessed against Mrs. May. The sensational testimony was offered by Joseph Interrieden of Cincinnati, who testified that he had caught his own wife and Mrs. May in the company of two other men in an automobile and then attempted to place them in jail but the sheriff would not take the prisoners because there was no warrant.

George E. Manlove was given a judgment against Clara Horral. The judgment cancelled a contract and gives him possession of the real estate. Mrs. Horral was buying the property from Manlove on installments and under the terms of the contract when ever she missed any payments the property went into the possession of Manlove. The case was heard Jan. 2 and taken under advisement by the court.

Clarence D. Nickel was granted a divorce from Lillian E. Nickel upon payment of the costs. He was also given the custody of their child. Mrs. Nickel is to have the right to visit the child at all reasonable times.

Albert L. Winship was appointed guardian for his brother Augustus Winship and gave bond in the sum of $30,000. It was at first believed that Augustus Winship would fight the attempt to have a guardian appointed but when the case was called his attorneys withdrew their appearance and only two witnesses were examined, tending to show that he was of unsound mind and not capable of managing his own affairs.

A JOINT INSTALLATION

Supreme Officers to Attend Modern Woodmen and R. N. A. Meeting

Monday, January 29th, has been set by the Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors for the installation of the new officers. Several of the supreme officers of the orders will be present for the installation and the meetings which will continue throughout the afternoon and evening. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the supreme officer will conduct a school of instruction for the Royal Neighbors. From 6 to 7:30 o'clock, a basket supper will be served for the members of both orders, which will be followed by a social in the evening. The supreme officers who have signified their intention of coming are John Voltz, banker of M. W. A. and Mrs. Volz, supreme auditor of R. N. A.

$2,000,000 FIRE TODAY

Pittsburg, Jan. 27.—Fire did nearly $2,000,000 damage early today when a half a block in the main business district of Pittsburg was burned. Five were injured, none seriously.

NOT SO MANY TAKE EXAM

51 Seek Teachers License as Compared to 161 Last Year

The attendance at the first teachers examination of the year fell off greatly over the attendance at the first examination in previous years. Only fifty-one took the exam which was conducted in the assembly room of the Graham school. A larger crowd than this was expected. Superintendent George believed that the examination room in the court house would be too small to hold the crowd and for this reason moved to the Graham school. At the first examination last year 161 took the test. The examination today was in charge of Ernest Marlatt, superintendent of the Manilla schools.

FAVORS UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING

National Security League Also Hears Address by Rep. Gardner Regarding Wilson's Late Address

SEEKING PLACE IN HISTORY

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 27.—The National Security League this afternoon unanimously went on record in favor of universal military service for all male citizens of the United States at 19 years of age. The Plattsburg system was recommended.

An international court and a league to enforce peace as proposed by President Wilson might draw the United States into a European or Asiatic war, Representative Gardner declared in speaking before the league.

Gardner denounced the president's speech, derided "peace without victory" and denied the practicability of "a concert of nations" to enforce a "lasting peace."

"President Wilson," Gardner said, "is gambling for a place in history with our national security as the stake."

"Instead of ever devising patent schemes for universal peace, we should be making our country secure."

He questioned the willingness of the people of the United States to submit to the mandate of an international court should one be established.

PASSES TWO BILLS: GETS 24 NEW ONES

House Acts Favorably on Measure That is Designed to Cut Expenses in Change of Venue.

CHARLES FAIRBANKS SPEAKS

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 27.—Two bills were passed and 24 new measures were introduced in the house today. No session was held by the senate. The bills passed were Senator Hemphill's allowing a holder of five shares of stock in a trust company to be eligible to a directorship, and Representative Harmon's bill providing that in case a change of venue is demanded in any court the judge may call in any other judge or disinterested attorney to try the case. This measure, it is believed, will cut down the expense now necessary in a change of venue.

Senator Beardsley's bill providing for a system of ventilation for the state house was reported on favorably by the house ways and means committee.

Charles Warren Fairbanks, former vice-president, addressed the legislature at the morning session.

SEVERAL BILLS ARE ON THE WAY

Sixteen Administration Bills Already Introduced and Others Yet to Come.

INTEREST IN OIL INSPECTION

Governor Goodrich Has Made it Plain What Bills he Wants Passed For Economy.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 27.—Although the seventieth session of the General Assembly has over forty days yet to run, many of the so-called administration measures are well on their way to final passage or defeat as the case may be.

Sixteen bills representing the recommendations of Governor Goodrich to the Legislature have already been introduced in both the House and the Senate. Of the remaining ten measures recommended by the Governor in his message to the Legislature, nine are practically ready and the Senate. Bills already introduced in both houses of the General Assembly include one to establish a Conservation Commission, to repeal the Three Mile Road Law, to reduce the salary of the Quartermaster General, to provide for absent voting, to provide for the consolidation of the reports of the various bureaus, boards, departments and offices in a single volume, to provide for the abolition of the office of State Statistician, to create State Highway Commission, to simplify methods of impeaching public officials who are recreant to their public duties, to abolish the Oil Department, to abolish the office of Legal Clerk to the Governor, to reduce the waiting period under the Workmen's Compensation Act from fourteen to seven days, to provide for the purchase of the old State Capitol at Corydon, to provide for the calling of a Constitutional Convention in 1918, to confer upon the State Board of Tax Commissioners authority to assess public utilities, to provide for the election by cities which want to adopt the Commission or City Manager form of government and to empower the state and its institutions to accept gifts and pay annuities during the life of the donor.

Of the bills which yet remain to be introduced, covering the recommendations of Governor Goodrich, there is one to make the office of Attorney-General appointive instead of elective, one to create a Department of Banking and Insurance, one to consolidate the management of the Public Library Commission and the State Library under a single board, one to give the state supervision and control of fire insurance rates, one to provide for compulsory, part-time attendance in the public schools of children under sixteen years of age, one to save the loss which the state now suffers in the publication of law books, one to require the approval of the Governor in the expenditure of all funds appropriated to various boards and commissions, one to provide for an efficiency survey of the state and its institutions and offices before the next meeting of the General Assembly, one to provide for the enactment of an excise or franchise tax and finally one to reduce the State tax levy on general property.

Nothing that has happened so far during the present session of the General Assembly has so thoroughly aroused the people of the state as the defeat of the bill to repeal the present oil inspection law by the Democratic members of the State Senate.

This is the only measure recommended by the Governor which thus far has been brought to a final vote in either House of the Assembly with the exception of the bill to call a Constitutional Convention, which has already been passed by the House. Next to the Oil Inspection Bill in

is the only Self Balancing Separator on the market. And the bowl is guaranteed to stay in balance the life of the machine. The Anker Holth skims the cleanest and is the easiest to keep clean and can be washed in one half the time you can wash any other separator. Every user of an Anker Holth remarks—HOW EASY it turns. This fact is especially noticeable to those who have operated other separators. A child can operate an Anker Holth with ease. The self oiling system—has no oil holes no feed cups—it simply runs in a bath of oil, and every two or three months change the oil by removing a set screw.

The Anker Holth contains fewer mechanical parts than any other separator made. And the bowl being self draining makes it non freezing in cold weather. There is no number on the disk and they are all interchangeable—they do not have to be kept on a stringer to wash them.

Nothing but the highest grade of steel and the best phosphar bronze and the most durable tinware goes into the construction of the Anker Holth.

The Anker Holth Cream Separator is the best Separator on the market today for Efficiency, Simplicity, Sanitation, Satisfaction and Durability

A DENTISTS FORMULA

VEGETABLE CALOMEL

Vegetable calomel, extract of the root of the old-fashioned may-apple plant, does not salivate. As a liver stimulator, it's great. It's a perfect substitute for ordinary calomel (mercury); in fact, it's better, because its action is gentle instead of severe and irritating—and it leaves no mean, disagreeable after-effects. Physicians recognize this and prescribe may-apple (podophyllin, they call it) daily.

Combined with four other standard, all-vegetable remedies, may-apple root may now be had at most any druggist's in convenient sugar-coated tablet form by asking for Sentanel Laxatives. If you forget the name, ask for the box that has the picture of the soldier on it.

These tablets are small, easy to take and are really wonderful little performers.

They quickly clean out the poisons that are causing you headache, constipation, sour stomach, biliousness, dizzy spells, bad breath and coated tongue.

They are mild. They never gripe. And they are a bowel tonic as well as a cleanser and liver regulator. A 10c box should last one several weeks. A Physician's trial package (4 doses) will be mailed you free if you write mentioning this advertisement. The Sentanel Remedies Co., 802 Madison Ave., Covington, Ky.

SEALS THE FATE OF RUSH COUNTY FAIR

held that a tax levy should have been made last September in order to have the money available for this year's fair. It was also pointed out that there was no fund from which the money could be taken.

Councilman Charles Davis of Milroy in voting against the proposition stated that since the appeal had been made through the newspapers the sentiment he had gathered in his own community was against the proposition. He declared that the only way he had of determining whether the people wanted the fair board to have the money was by what they said and everyone who had said anything to him about the appropriation was against it.

Noah Tryon, a member of the fair board and one of the active workers for the fair in years past, declared following the meeting that the grounds would be sold at once to pay the indebtedness. "It is impossible for the fair to continue," said Mr. Tryon, "without this appropriation and there is just one thing to do—sell the grounds. If the county council has not enough pride in this public enterprise then let the people seek elsewhere for amusements."

The fair board will likely meet soon and take definite steps toward the disorganization.

The county council after disposing of the fair proposition proceeded with some appropriations for bridges. The money for the bridges were appropriated but at the end of the year the money reverts to the county unless paid out and several instances of this kind were brought to the attention of the council.

An Inside Bath Makes You Look and Feel Fresh

Says a glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast keeps illness away.

This excellent, common-sense health measure being adopted by millions.

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store.
This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pre-nounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.

Buying More From France

France to the front on sales to us. During the first 11 months of 1916 the fleur de lis stamp was on $98,400,000 worth of our imports, an increase of $30,000,000 over the similar period 1915, and somewhat greater than our imports from that country for the first 11 months of 1914, during seven months of which period the Wilson-Underwood law had free swing. Not only has France had some fighting abroad but some trade with us. True our sales to France increased $350,000,000 during the 1916 period, compared with 1915—from $452,000,000 to $802,000,000—but those sales consisted mainly of war munitions, and they were nearly $667,000,000 above normal. We cannot depend upon any such export trade with France after the war, while she can and will increase her sales to us tremendously if we continue to operate under a tariff-for-less-revenue policy as at present. How is the proposed Democratic duty on coffee, tea, and rubber, to meet the post-war situation?

Has Balfour Spiked the Guns of Prussian Logic?

Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, Balfour, in his note supplementing the Entente's reply to President Wilson's request for a statement of peace terms, declares that he does "not believe peace can be durable if it be not based upon the success of the Allied cause."

Apparently, one of the objects of this new communication was to convince the American public that the changes in the map of Europe suggested in the previous note of the Entente Allies would prevent future wars.

On the other hand, the pro-German "Fatherland," of New York, dismisses the Allies' terms as under no circumstances the possible basis for permanent peace and holds up the "principles of nationality" for ridicule.

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for January 27th, the leading article deals with Mr. Balfour's note and by quoting the opinions of editorial observers of widely differing sentiment, reflects public opinion in this country upon the subject in a most comprehensive way.

Among other articles of unusual interest in this week's issue are:

NEWCASTLE LOST AT ITS OWN GAME

High School Quintet Defeated by Rushville, 50 to 15, in one of
Roughest Contests

CONTINUAL ROUGH WORK

Visitors Showed Lack of Practice
and Were Unable to Hit Baskets When Under Them

In one of the roughest games of the season Rushville defeated Newcastle last night by the overwhelming score of 50 to 15. After the first ten minutes of play the final outcome was never in doubt and while the game was rough Rushville
beat Newcastle at its own game.

Thorpe was the first to score for Rushville and then Pence came back with a field goal for Newcastle. The locals had some difficulty getting started but in the middle of the first half the break came and Newcastle was fairly smothered under the baskets. The first half ended with the score 31 to 10.

Newcastle showed a lack of practice. The team was slightly heavier than Rushville and in the last half the rough stuff started. Referee Lyde overlooked a large part of the rough work and several near fights resulted. Wise, a guard on the Newcastle team, was one of the worst offenders. Wise deliberately slapped Thorpe and as a result brought the crowd to its feet. Thorpe was down with Wise over him. As they started to get up Wise looked around and finding that the referee was not looking took a healthy slap at Thorpe.

The team work of the Rushville
team was the best the team has displayed this season. Martin and Thorpe did most of the scoring for Rushville, Thorpe getting twenty-four points and Martin eighteen points. Norman Reed played his best

a number of Maxwell automobiles by way of the company cancelling a neighbor dealer's contract at the time when there were three carloads of cars shipped to him course, took them.

At the same time we were offered the opportunity of increasing our contract with the company, thereby increasing our schedule of cars per month.

With these two explanations, we are now ready to tell you that we have in stock and between here and Detroit thirty-nine (39) Maxwell Automobiles and all of them

The factory has increased the price $40 per car. We intend to sell these 39 cars at the old price.

Roadster - - - - $595.00

We have 13 of these cars sold that have not been de-

There is only one way you can get one—give us your or-

this $40 saving can get in if they do so before these cars are all taken.

splinter new ones just received—some of them, as before stated, not yet here.

points.

The Newcastle guards displayed a better game than the forwards. The forwards were unable to work the ball down the floor and even when they did were unable to hit the basket. Several times the game be-

H. Parsons.

A delightful meeting of the Social Dozen was held with Mrs. W. C. Smith at her home in North Main street yesterday afternoon when the twelve members spent the afternoon together socially. The next meeting of the club will be in two weeks with Mrs. J. T. Arbuckle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newhouse of Glenwood invited the members of the R. C. S. and a few other friends in to aid them in the celebration of their eleventh wedding anniversary on Wednesday evening. Having previously decided to surprise them, the guests followed out their plans and went an hour earlier, taking with them in their baskets the necessities for an oyster supper. After enjoying the bountiful supper, the guests were entertained with two clever contests, music and several games of cards during the course of the evening.

SOME SHAPES IN SPRING HATS TYPIFYING THE SPRING MODELS

These street shapes typify some of the early spring model which are already being worn. The snug, round turban promise to be most popular. All signs of a "tilt" in wearing the hats are gone for this season, for fashion decrees they are to be worn exactly straight.

Much yellow in all the popular tones—citron, canary, gold, mustard, etc.—is in the sport hats showing the features both in straws and in fabrics. Crowns of felt and cloth are associated with straw brims, crown tops of fabric are set into crowns of straw and the brims may be all of the straw or partly of straw and partly of fabric.

The mossy rough straws of last summer combine very effectively with plain fabrics for sports hat purposes, and very fine, supple straw braids are used in two or even more colors, the colors alternating throughout the whole hat and giving the effect of narrow stripes running round the hat. A little collapsible hat of this sort in smart coloring with a brim facing of plain silk and a weekade trimming of similar plain silk would be a comfortable and practicable possession.

Along with the various forms of high satin turbans come lower turbans innumerable in satin or faille or other silk or in silk and straw combined. Black, the dark browns and the deep blues are as usual, much in evidence in these small street hats and there are a good many purples and grays.

Purple and a median old blue are much combined, and a clever little turban with the narrowest of cloche brims and the highest of crowns is all of purple satin, with its trimming a narrow band of old blue beads running around the high crown near its top and three tassels of old blue beads dangling from this band in front.

A small sailor shape with rather narrow sharply rolled brim is offered in satin and, though trying, is a jaunty and youthful model.

Wide brimmed floppy picture hats of finest erin are among the things offered for southern wear, and many of them seem to be of the turned up back and dropping front lines. One of these models was of the palest sulphur yellow tone with a wreath of camellia like roses shading exquisitely from the yellow of the hat down through deeper yellows into a fruity reddish pink and a ribbon of turquoise blue. Pure French this coloring and entirely successful.

Tulle hats and hats of tulle combined with straw or erin are always in the southern season showing, and there are quantities of such models in black, with trimming entirely of tulle or great bows of tulle bound narrowly in satin or feather trimmings, such as have been used on the winter's large dress hats—parade, gounah, imitation egrets and all the other delicate plumage.

ing. Later, the hostess served a dainty luncheon. Guests enjoying this unique affair were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kenner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank George, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Matney, all from Little Flatrock, Dr. and Mrs. Walter of Glenwood, Miss Edith Caldwell and Will Brown of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Lesner Allender of Arlington.

With a western woman running for president-general, the D. A. R. congress to be held in Washington in the month of April is of special interest to Indiana members of the D. A. R. Mrs. George Guernsey of Topeka, Kan., who is running for president-general has already been pledged the support of the local delegates, Mrs. Will Dill, regent and Mrs. Sarah Guffin, the latter being elected yesterday at the meeting held at the home of Mrs. Fred Caldwell in North Morgan street. Added interest comes with the fact that two Indiana women are also running for national offices, Mrs. John Newman Perry of Richmond for treasurer-general and Mrs. James Fowler of Lafayette for librarian-general.

At the meeting yesterday, ten dollars were pledged by the local society to the State Park fund. Officers were elected who will take their places in the fall of this year. Mrs. Frank Jones was elected regent; Mrs. A. L. Gary, vice-regent; Miss Emma Cassidy, recording secretary; Mrs. Wilbur Stiers, corresponding secretary; Miss Eva Ball, treasurer; Miss Alice Norris, registrar; Mrs. George Havens, chaplain; Mrs. D. D. VanOsdol, historian; and Mrs. Joe Amos, librarian.

Three new members were admitted into the local chapter yesterday, according to the report read by the registrar, Miss Emma Cassidy, that they had been admitted by the national society at Washington. Mrs. Estelle Jones Lee of Indianapolis, Mrs. Margaret Mitchell Huffman of Cleveland, Ohio and Mrs. Bernice Webb Jackson of Anderson are the new members. Twenty members attended this annual business meeting of the society which was followed by the service of delicious refreshments. Hostesses at the meeting aside from Mrs. Caldwell were Miss Emma Blackledge, Mrs. Elizabeth Caldwell, Miss Charlotte Callaghan, and Mrs. J. D. Case.

The next meeting will be held February 15th at the home of Mrs.

Carl Behr when the program will be on colonial songs and "Guest Day" will be observed.

Mrs. Albert Capp will entertain the members of her card club at her home on Tuesday afternoon of next week.

A pleasant evening was enjoyed by the members of the card club entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winship at their hospitable country home south of the city last evening. At the end of several games of "500" the host and hostess served a dainty one course supper. Those enjoying the evening together were Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Harton, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Winship and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Winship, aside from the host and hostess.

Invitations have been received here for the coming marriage of Edmund Earl Hazelrigg, of Akron, Ohio, and Miss Eva Lewis, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Lewis of San Diego, Cal. The ceremony will be performed in the First Methodist church at San Diego on February 14th. Mr. and Mrs. Hazelrigg will make their home in Akron, where he is in the chemistry business. Mr. Hazelrigg is the son of Dyer Hazelrigg, who formerly lived here and is known in this city.

WOMAN IS FORCIBLY FED

"Hunger-Striker" Given Food When She Becomes Unconscious

(By United Press.)

New York, Jan. 28.—After going five full days without food or water, Mrs. Ethel Byrne, hunger striking in protest against imprisonment for distributing birth control information, was forcibly fed early today.

Shortly after midnight her condition became critical. Physicians were summoned when she lapsed into unconsciousness. They inserted a tube into her throat and forced liquid food into her stomach. The reports today were that the woman's condition was as good as could be expected and denied that she had offered any resistance to forcible feeding.

FAIR DAMES ARE WAXING MOST ENTHUSIASTIC OVER WAX SEALS

Fashion's Latest Fad Causes Butcher, Baker and Candlestick Maker to be Doubly Stunned, Not Only to Have Their Bills Paid, But to Receive Their Checks in Envelopes Dashinglly Sealed With Monogrammed Sploches of Vivid Wax.

(Written for United Press.)

By MARGARET MASON

Dame Fashion's latest fad's a seal; Not one that's in the Zoo, Or found around the frozen North, But on each billet doux No matter if it's writ to Tom Or Dick or Milly, who Receives it first must break the seal That's monogrammed with you.

New York, Jan. 27.—All the girls are waxing most enthusiastic over sealing wax. Even the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker, aside from their first natural surprise at having their bills paid at all, are doubly stunned at receiving their checks in envelopes dashinglly sealed with monogrammed sploches of vivid wax.

You see, the dear girls are practicing on everybody just to perfect their art of making a good impression. Naturally by the time they write to Percy or Harold they want to make perfectly stunning impressions and only practice makes perfect as the copy books tell us.

Since, paradoxically in fashion, it is always the oldest that is the newest at the present moment it is no wonder that the gentle art of sealing correspondence has returned to stick. Cleopatra used to finish off her long papyrus rolls of love talk to Marc Antony with a gob of hot sealing wax duly stamped and with her royal scarab seal. I have no doubt that Eve herself scratched little stone billet doux to Adam when he was away for a week end and finished them up with a flourish of red clay on which was stamped her mark, carved on the tooth of a dinosaur us.

Great seals of state, government seals, royal seals and pontifical seals have always been the last word as 'twere, so what more fitting than that the last word of Fashion be a seal also.

With the lovely new paper embossed with a monogram or crest in a contrasting or darker tone in the upper left corner it is a last artistic touch to seal the envelopes, lined with the same color as the embossing, with the same shade of sealing wax in which the imprint of the smart crest or monogram is set.

Buff colored paper, monogrammed, envelope lined, and sealed in golden brown is a favorite color scheme, as is pearl grey combined either with a darker grey, silver or purple.

An attractive Wedge wood effect is obtained with blue paper bordered in a tiny line of white with a white monogram and sealed with white wax. Lettuce green paper combined with the white in the same manner is also charming and refreshing although apt to have a cooling effect even on an ardent swain.

Of course the perfection of the color scheme is further carried out by having the tapers where one melts the wax partake of the same chosen hue and the quill pen wherewith one writes must also perforce be colored likewise. Really the only blow to the color scheme is handed out heartlessly by the United States of America. It is indeed very inconsiderate of the government not to have different toned stamps to fit in with the color scheme of grey and purple notes.

The soul of the artistic letter writer must writhe indeed to set a red stamp in the margin of a Wedgewood envelope. Really the only way out is to be extravagant and use five cent stamps on the blue notes and a collection of one cent one's on the lettuce effects.

Lovers ought to welcome the return of the sealing wax and the seal with particular avidity. The state of the seal will so quickly indicate to their palpitating hearts just what to expect from the inside of the envelope. If the note be full of ardent and flaming words and passionate burning phrases the wax seal will be in a melted gooey state. If on the other hand the tone of the letter be cold and cruel and spurnful the wax seal will proclaim its crest or monogram in frigid perfection.

Early Spring Suit Suitable for Girls

The box plaits in the coat that continue through the lines in the skirts are particularly becoming to this girlish figure. Her practical early spring suit is of colored soft wool material. The rolled collar lined with broadcloth is just as becoming when thrown back. Her patent boots, for patent leather is to be good again this spring, her beaded bag and the straight little satin turban complete the street costume. Rumor says the skirts are to be longer and narrower.

Craig. "The man who took a large sum of money to defend him; and the defense he made; the condition of politics in Lycoming county that seemed to make necessary a hanging; the personnel of the jury that found the verdict, the question of serving alcoholic drink to jurymen on duty; the rush verdict of Saturday night, just before the clock struck twelve. But John Erble was condemned to die.

"On the seventh of July, God came to John Erble in Williamsport jail. His transformation was a miracle. I saw him the day before the execution. I never saw the whole of heaven let down into a man before. The clearest vision I have ever had of Christ was in the face of John Erble. He demonstrated, absolutely, that perfect love casteth out fear. From him had gone all passion, all malice, all pride of life, all fear and in their place God had taken up His abode.

"No man came into contact with John Erble within the last six months of his life who did not feel the presence of a Divine power. From his presence men went impelled to the highest and best within them to intervene with Governor Tener. Strongest and truest and most conscientious men of Williamsport refused to give up their efforts to save the county, the blotch of John Erble's murder even up to the hour set for execution. But Governor Tener was flint.

"I have since thought that the heart of Governor Tener was hardened that he might do down in history as the man who let John Erble hang. That out of it might come the emancipation of Pennsylvania from capital punishment.

"A state that is negligent at the cradle, and reckless in its licenses, and indifferent to prostitution and Godless in politics, has no right to be puritanical at the gallows.

"I am opposed to official hanging, states that are false to the home, under pretense of Divine law, by states that are false to the home, untrue to society, and destroyers of all the heritage of God, even to His Holy day.

"The state that provides drink which precipitates murder is as much a party to the murder as the poor wretch that fires the gun—the state hangs the poor wretch and talks of the Justice of God. It is a sacrilege."

DRINK HOT TEA

FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest

St. Jacobs Oil

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

SEVERAL BILLS ARE ON WAY

public interest, perhaps, are the bills to create a State Highway Commission and Conservation Commission and to repeal the Three Mile Road Law.

The State Highway Commission bill is being bitterly fought in committees of both the House and the Senate by the Contractors' Lobby, which is masquerading as representative of the farmers of the State.

Governor Goodrich has made it plain to every one who has consulted with him that he will veto any bill on this subject which does not contain the proper safeguards and which does not make it wholly impossible for contractors to dominate the letting of contracts and the construction of permanent highways.

Practically the only opposition to the bill to create a Conservation Commission comes from the small coterie of Democratic office holders who think they may lose their jobs because under the operation of the Conservation Law they may not be able to qualify as experts in their respective departments.

Few measures pending before the General Assembly have brought to Indianapolis a bigger and more determined Lobby than the bill to repeal the Three-Mile Road Law. Millions of dollars have been spent in the construction of Roads under the Three-Mile Road Laws since the law was passed and taxes have mounted higher and higher every year. According to Governor Goodrich, this would not be so wholly inexcusable were it not for the fact that the public money has been wasted because contractors operating in collusion with County Commissioners in the various counties not only rarely have built the roads according to specifications but have used inferior material, making repairs an enormous burden.

One of the most sensational disclosures in connection with the hearing of the Three-Mile Road Law was brought out Tuesday night, before the House Roads Committee. An attorney of Richmond admitted to the Committee that he had received attorneys fees as high as $500 for preparing single petitions for the construction of Three-Mile roads. Every one acquainted with the preparation of a petition under the Three-Mile Road Law knows that this a wholly unwarranted and unreasonable charge. Under the present law, the attorney's fees are paid by the county. Governor Goodrich has suggested that if it is impossible to defeat the Contractors' Lobby now operating in the State Capitol, the next best thing to do is to amend the Three-Mile Road Law so that attorneys' fees will be limited to $10 for the preparation of each petition and that this fee shall be paid by the petitioners rather than by the county, feat the enactment of the bill to put an end to at least one of the glaring abuses under the law.

There is a formidable Lobby now operating in the State Capitol to defeat the enactment of the Bill to simplify the method of removing from office public officials who refuse or fail to perform their duty. Liquor interests furnish the bone and sinew for this Lobby. They are opposed to the bill because the fear of removal from office is likely to bring about a more rigid enforcement of the law and because the profits from the liquor business in part depend strictly on law violations.

There is a well defined and rather accurately authenticated report that the Democratic members of the State Senate in caucus have agreed to oppose practically every measure favored by Governor Goodrich which will amount to a large measure of economy, and a greater measure of efficiency in the administration of the State Government. The Democrats have taken the short-sighted view that the enactment of this measure and the very apparent reduction in the cost of State Government which they will make certain are almost certain to result in another Republican victory in 1920.

Governor Goodrich has made it perfectly clear to the members of the General Assembly and to the assembled Lobbyists, where he has been able to get in touch with them, that he will accept no compromises which are likely to defeat the very purposes of the legislation he has recommended. He has done everything in his power to induce members of the General Assembly to support the program he has outlined; but if worse comes to worse, the Governor of Indiana is prepared to fight.

NURSE RELIEVES MUCH SUFFERING

The Patient She Helped Makes Interesting Statement.

Madison, Wis.—Mrs. Oscar Day, of 1606 Monona Ave., Fair Oaks, this town, says: "Before my baby was born, I suffered terribly with womanly troubles and nervousness, and was living in a state of fear all the time."

One day, an old friend of mine, who, by the way, is a nurse, and goes around to all cases, brought me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and told me to keep on taking it right along. I did, and felt much better after the first bottle. I kept on taking it, and had as little trouble as anybody could wish for. Feeling very good now.

There never was a better medicine for women than Cardui, and I will recommend it to any one who is in need of it. This nurse uses Cardui with her patients, so it is well known all around here.

SEALS FATE OF COUNTY FAIR

County Council Refuses an Appropriation and Members of Board Say Exhibit Can't be Held

FORMAL ACTION EXPECTED

Held Likely That Ground Will be Sold to Pay Indebtedness—Two Councilmen Favorable

The county council this afternoon refused to appropriate the sum of $1,500 to the Rush County association, thus practically sealing the fate of the fair. Following the meeting several members of the fair board expressed themselves as favorable to selling the grounds to pay off the indebtedness. While nothing definite was done it is practically certain that there will be no Rush county fair the coming year.

Fon Riggs, A. L. Stewart, Noah Tryon and Albert Denning, representing the fair board waited upon the county council in an effort to get some money with which to carry on the fair. No definite amount was asked and on the motion of John F. McKee, county councilman, the amount was fixed at $1,500. On the vote taken two members voted favorably, two voted against it and two did not vote, thus killing the proposition as it required a two-third vote to pass.

The appeal was made to the county council in the light that the fair was a public enterprise and was for the benefit of the entire county. One or two members of the council probably would have favored the appropriation had the fair been made a free fair. There was some question as to whether the council had a right to appropriate the sum asked. Some

President of Farmers Trust Co., Announces he is Candidate for Republican Nomination

WOULD LIKE TO BE MAYOR

Arthur B. Irvin, president of the Farmers Trust Company, this afternoon filed his declaration of candidacy for the nomination of mayor on the republican ticket. Mr. Irvin will seek the nomination as a successful business man. It is believed he is well qualified for the position he seeks. Mr. Irvin practiced law for nineteen years and acted as city attorney for a term of eight successive years. By reason of this he believes himself well fitted for the conducting of police court. During his time as city attorney the city never lost a cent in litigation. He was in this position when the city water and light plant was organized, the first municipal plant in the state.

At that time the organization was attacked by a gas company and Mr. Irvin won out through the supreme court. Mr. Irvin has always been one of the progressive citizens of the community. He was largely instrumental in securing the first brick street for the city. He spent twenty-three days of his time and money in the legislature to prevent the repeal of the three-mile road law so that Main street might be built.

He organized Building Association No. 10 and has served as secretary of this organization for the past twenty-seven years. He has also served as cashier and president of the trust company for twenty-six years. Mr. Irvin promises a business administration if nominated and elected.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Eakins passed shortly after the accident and helped them get home. The machine was slightly damaged.

GILSON GETS OUT ON $1,000 BOND

Arlington Man Will Probably Have to Stand Loss of Fine Paid to Carthage Squire

GARDNER IMPROVED TODAY

Robert Gilson of Arlington, who was arrested yesterday, on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill Lewis Gardner, also of Arlington, was released from jail late yesterday afternoon after securing bond in the sum of $1,000. Gardner, who received a broken nose and numerous bruises about the head and face, was somewhat improved today. The fight between Gilson and Gardner is said to have resulted because Gilson resented his recent indictment by the grand jury and blamed Gardner. Gardner was not even a witness before the grand jury. Gilson was fined on four charges and afterwards was dismissed from an Arlington lodge.

It appears that Gilson is out the sum of $5.35 which he paid Squire Bishop of Carthage. Immediately following the fight he went to Carthage and Squire Bishop accepted his plea of guilty. This was not according to law as the injured person must be present. Gilson thought he was out of the trouble and then the affidavit for assault and battery with intent to kill was filed.

TO GET BIDS ON NEW SALEM PIKE

County Commissioners This Afternoon Decide to Build the Frank Capp Highway.

PETITION HELD UP FOR YEAR

The county commissioners this afternoon ordered the county auditor to advertise for bids for the Frank Capp highway to be received March 5. This proposed highway is in Rushville township and if it goes through will be of concrete construction. The petition was presented last year, but other roads crowded it out when Rushville township became bonded to the limit of its indebtedness. The road is commonly called the New Salem pike and the improvement is said to be greatly needed.

The viewers and engineer submitted an additional report on this road raising the estimate over that made last year. This is because of the increase price of materials. It was believed that the road could not be built this year for what the estimate called for last year.

Sam Young and Charles Owen were appointed viewers for the Posy-Ripley township road.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKee and family of near Orange spent the day in this city.

CAMPAIGN TO BE CLOSED SUNDAY

Dr. J. A. McCuaig Will Address Three Meetings, First One Union Session for Young People

ANOTHER AT 7 AND AT 8:30

Story of John Erble is Vehicle by Means of Which Lecturer Teaches Powerful Lesson

Dr. J. Aspinall McCuaig of New York, will bring to a complete close, his work in Rushville with three addresses Sunday night. The first of these will be at 6:00 o'clock, in the First Presbyterian church, when he will address a mass meeting of young people on "Ever Learning."

At 7:00 o'clock, the regular hour of evening worship, Dr. McCuaig will preach in St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church an "How to Love."

The great closing meeting of Dr. McCuaig's brief campaign in this city will be held at 8:30 o'clock in the Main Street Christian church for both men and women. This will be a union meeting of all the Rushville churches, and at this time Dr. McCuaig will deliver his celebrated lecture "Mistakes about Marriage."

In the discussion of "Mistakes about Marriage" Sunday night matter will be under consideration that will in a novel way, appeal to all from the shop girl who works for a few dollars a week to the most advanced student of sociology.

Last night Dr. McCuaig spoke to a large congregation an "A Twentieth Century Tragedy—The Hanging of John Erble."

Dr. McCuaig, laid the foundation for his address by outlining the principle of control that must be developed in every life from the cradle if a strong effective manhood is to be realized.

In few words he introduced John Erble, who on the morning of the third of February two years ago, paid the death penalty in Williamsport, Pa., jail for the murder of Grace Stidfole.

"When I speak of the state tonight," Dr. McCuaig declared, "I mean it—the state in the broadest sense—the community."

"John Erble was born twenty-nine years ago, with all the native forces within him common to men—hunger, temper, sexual instinct. But the state was not interested in these forces in the child. The state was interested in the preservation of forests, the protection of game, the stocking of rivers, the jailing of drunkards, the quarantining of disease, and the discussion of feeble-mindedness and epilepsy. But in these seed forces in the child the state had no interest. So John Erble grew up untaught."

"John Erble, as a boy, ran loose, with other boys and girls at all hours, and in the course of time was forced into a premature marriage. "And the neglect of the state was not all. The state provided John Erble with whiskey. And there was no standard of whiskey. And many of the houses in which the state provided whiskey had pictures of nude women hanging over the bar."

"And the state that provided whiskey fostered bawdy houses. There were laws against bawdy houses, but there were other laws in which they were recognized and encouraged. And John Erble became infatuated with a woman. It was the infatuation of a passionate man. It was after the infatuation of a drink-frenzied man. It was the infatuation of an uncontrolled mind. And out of a score of orgies, John Erble shot the woman, brutally—once, twice, thrice. He shot her in a bawdy house because she would not leave the bawdy house for him—jealous—mad—blind—with passion."

TERM OF COURT IS ENDED TODAY

November Term is Brought to a Close and February Term Will Open Week From Monday

MAY DIVORCE IS REFUSED

Decree, However, is Granted C. D. Nickel From Lillian Nickel—Guardian for A. Winship

The November term of court was brought to a close today. The term has been a busy one, a large amount of business both probate and civil being transacted. There will be no court next week and the February term will start on Monday, February 5.

Judge Sparks today refused a divorce to Mrs. Hazel May from Walter May. Additional evidence was introduced in this case last Saturday, tending to show that Mrs. May was seen "joy-riding" on the night before the case was called for trial. The costs were assessed against Mrs. May. The sensational testimony was offered by Joseph Interrieden of Cincinnati, who testified that he had caught his own wife and Mrs. May in the company of two other men in an automobile and then attempted to place them in jail but the sheriff would not take the prisoners because there was no warrant.

George E. Manlove was given a judgment against Clara Horrah. The judgment cancelled a contract and gives him possession of the real estate. Mrs. Horrah was buying the property from Manlove on installments and under the terms of the contract when ever she missed any payments the property went into the possession of Manlove. The case was heard Jan. 2 and taken under advisement by the court.

Clarence D. Nickel was granted a divorce from Lillian E. Nickel upon payment of the costs. He was also given the custody of their child. Mrs. Nickel is to have the right to visit the child at all reasonable times.

Albert L. Winship was appointed guardian for his brother Augustus Winship and gave bond in the sum of $30,000. It was at first believed that Augustus Winship would fight the attempt to have a guardian appointed but when the case was called his attorneys withdrew their appearance and only two witnesses were examined, tending to show that he was of unsound mind and not capable of managing his own affairs.

From 6 to 7:30 o'clock, a basket supper will be served for the members of both orders, which will be followed by a social in the evening. The supreme officers who have signified their intention of coming are John Volz, banker of M. W. A. and Mrs. Volz, supreme auditor of R. N. A.

NOT SO MANY TAKE EXAM

51 Seek Teachers License as Compared to 161 Last Year

The attendance at the first teachers examination of the year fell off greatly over the attendance at the first examination in previous years. Only fifty-one took the exam which was conducted in the assembly room of the Graham school. A larger crowd than this was expected. Superintendent George believed that the examination room in the court house would be too small to hold the crowd and for this reason moved to the Graham school. At the first examination last year 161 took the test. The examination today was in charge of Ernest Marlatt, superintendent of the Manilla schools.

FAVORS UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING

National Security League Also Hears Address by Rep. Gardner Denouncing Wilson's Late Address

SEEKING PLACE IN HISTORY

Washington, Jan. 27.—The National Security League this afternoon unanimously went on record in favor of universal military service for all male citizens of the United States at 19 years of age. The Plattsburg system was recommended.

An international court and a league to enforce peace as proposed by President Wilson might draw the United States into a European or Asiatic war, Representative Gardner declared in speaking before the league.

Gardner denounced the president's speech, derided "peace without victory" and denied the practicability of "a concert of nations" to enforce a "lasting peace."

"President Wilson," Gardner said, "is gambling for a place in history with our national security as the stake."

"Instead of ever devising patent schemes for universal peace, we should be making our country secure."

He questioned the willingness of the people of the United States to submit to the mandate of an international court should one be established.

PASSES TWO BILLS: GETS 24 NEW ONES

House Acts Favorably on Measure That is Designed to Cut Expenses in Change of Venue.

CHARLES FAIRBANKS SPEAKS

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 27.—Two bills were passed and 24 new measures were introduced in the house today. No session was held by the senate. The bills passed were Senator Hemphill's allowing a holder of five shares of stock in a trust company to be eligible to a directorship, and Representative Harmon's bill providing that in case a change of venue is demanded in any court the judge may call in any other judge or disinterested attorney to try the case. This measure, it is believed, will cut down the expense now necessary in a change of venue.

Senator Beardley's bill providing for a system of ventilation for the state house was reported on favorably by the house ways and means committee.

Charles Warren Fairbanks, former vice-president, addressed the legislature at the morning session.

SEVERAL BILLS ARE ON THE WAY

Sixteen Administration Bills Already Introduced and Others Yet to Come.

INTEREST IN OIL INSPECTION

Governor Goodrich Has Made it Plain What Bills he Wants Passed For Economy.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 27.—Although the seventieth session of the General Assembly has over forty days yet to run, many of the so-called administration measures are well on their way to final passage or defeat as the case may be.

Sixteen bills representing the recommendations of Governor Goodrich to the Legislature have already been introduced in both the House and the Senate. Of the remaining ten measures recommended by the Governor in his message to the Legislature, nine are practically ready and the Senate. Bills already introduced in both houses of the General Assembly include one to establish a Conservation Commission, to repeal the Three Mile Road Law, to reduce the salary of the Quartermaster General, to provide for absent voting, to provide for the consolidation of the reports of the various bureaus, boards, departments and offices in a single volume, to provide for the abolition of the office of State Statistician, to create State Highway Commission, to simplify methods of impeaching public officials who are present to their public duties, to abolish the Oil Department, to abolish the office of Legal Clerk to the Governor, to reduce the waiting period under the Workmen's Compensation Act from fourteen to seven days, to provide for the purchase of the old State Capitol at Corydon, to provide for the calling of a Constitutional Convention in 1918, to confer upon the State Board of Tax Commissioners authority to assess public utilities, to provide for the election by cities which want to adopt the Commission or City Manager form of government and to empower the state and its institutions to accept gifts and pay annuities during the life of the donor.

Of the bills which yet remain to be introduced, covering the recommendations of Governor Goodrich, there is one to make the office of Attorney-General appointive instead of elective, one to create a Department of Banking and Insurance, one to consolidate the management of the Public Library Commission and the State Library under a single board, one to give the state supervision and control of fire insurance rates, one to provide for compulsory, part-time attendance in the public schools of children under sixteen years of age, one to save the loss which the state now suffers in the publication of law books, one to require the approval of the Governor in the expenditure of all funds appropriated to various boards and commissions, one to provide for an efficiency survey of the state and its institutions and offices before the next meeting of the General Assembly, one to provide for the enactment of an excise or franchise tax and finally one to reduce the State tax levy on general property.

Nothing that has happened so far during the present session of the General Assembly has so thoroughly aroused the people of the state as the defeat of the bill to repeal the present oil inspection law by the Democratic members of the State Senate.

This is the only measure recommended by the Governor which thus far has been brought to a final vote in either House of the Assembly with the exception of the bill to call a Constitutional Convention, which has already been passed by the House. Next is the Oil Inspection Bill.

is the only Self Balancing Separator on the market. And the bowl is guaranteed to stay in balance the life of the machine. The Anker Holth skims the cleanest and is the easiest to keep clean and can be washed in one half the time you can wash any other separator. Every user of an Anker Holth remarks—HOW EASY it turns. This fact is especially noticeable to those who have operated other separators. A child can operate an Anker Holth with ease. The self oiling system—has no oil holes on feed cups—it simply runs in a bath of oil, and every two or three months change the oil by removing a set screw.

The Anker Holth contains fewer mechanical parts than any other separator made. And the bowl being self draining makes it non freezing in cold weather. There is no number on the disk and they are all interchangeable—they do not have to be kept on a stringer to wash them.

Nothing but the highest grade of steel and the best phosphar bronze and the most durable tinware goes into the construction of the Anker Holth.

The Anker Holth Cream Separator is the best Separator on the market today for Efficiency, Simplicity, Sanitation, Satisfaction and Durability

A DENTISTS FORMULA

Vegetable calomel, extract of the root of the old-fashioned may-apple plant, does not salivate. As a liver stimulator, it's great. It's a perfect substitute for ordinary calomel (mercury); in fact, it's better, because its action is gentle instead of severe and irritating—and it leaves no mean, disagreeable after-effects. Physicians recognize this and prescribe may-apple root (podophyllin, they call it) daily.

Combined with four other standard, all-vegetable remedies, may-apple root may now be had at most any druggist's in convenient sugar-coated tablet form by asking for Santal Laxatives. If you forget the name, ask for the box that has the picture of the soldier on it. These tablets are small, easy to take and are really wonderful little performers.

They quickly clean out the poisons that are causing you headache, constipation, sour stomach, biliousness, dizzy spells, bad breath and coated tongue. They are mild. They never gripe. And they are a bowel tonic as well as a cleanser and liver regulator. A 10c box should last one several weeks. A Physician's trial package (4 doses) will be mailed you free if you write mentioning this advertisement. The Santal Remedies Co., 802 Madison Ave., Covington, Ky.

held that a tax levy should have been made last September in order to have the money available for this year's fair. It was also pointed out that there was no fund from which the money could be taken.

Councilman Charles Davis of Milroy in voting against the proposition stated that since the appeal had been made through the newspapers the sentiment he had gathered in his own community was against the proposition. He declared that the only way he had of determining whether the people wanted the fair board to have the money was by what they said and everyone who had said anything to him about the appropriation was against it.

Noah Tryon, a member of the fair board and one of the active workers for the fair in years past, declared following the meeting that the grounds would be sold at once to pay the indebtedness. "It is impossible for the fair to continue," said Mr. Tryon, "without this appropriation and there is just one thing to do—sell the grounds. If the county council has not enough pride in this public enterprise then let the people seek elsewhere for amusements."

The fair board will likely meet soon and take definite steps toward the disorganization.

The county council after disposing of the fair proposition proceeded with some appropriations for bridges. The money for the bridges were appropriated but at the end of the year the money reverts to the county un-

An Inside Bath Makes You Look and Feel Fresh

Says a glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast keeps illness away.

This excellent, common-sense health measure being adopted by millions.

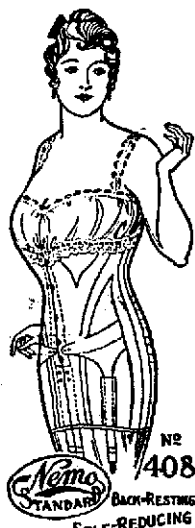

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do. Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.

Buying More From France

France to the front on sales to us. During the first 11 months of 1916 the fleur de lis stamp was on $98,400,000 worth of our imports; an increase of $30,000,000 over the similar period 1915, and somewhat greater than our imports from that country for the first 11 months of 1914, during seven months of which period the Wilson-Underwood law had free swing. Not only has France had some fighting abroad but some trade with us. True our sales to France increased $350,000,000 during the 1916 period, compared with 1915—from $452,000,000 to $802,000,000—but those sales consisted mainly of war munitions, and they were nearly $667,000,000 above normal. We cannot depend upon any such export trade with France after the war, while she can and will increase her sales to us tremendously if we continue to operate under a tariff-for-less-revenue policy as at present. How is the proposed Democratic duty on coffee, tea, and rubber, to meet the post-war situation?

Has Balfour Spiked the Guns of Prussian Logic?

Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, Balfour, in his note supplementing the Entente's reply to President Wilson's request for a statement of peace terms, declares that he does "not believe peace can be durable if it be not based upon the success of the Allied cause."

Apparently, one of the objects of this new communication was to convince the American public that the changes in the map of Europe suggested in the previous note of the Entente Allies would prevent future wars.

On the other hand, the pro-German "Fatherland," of New York, dismisses the Allies' terms as under no circumstances the possible basis for permanent peace and holds up the "principles of nationality" for ridicule.

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for January 27th, the leading article deals with Mr. Balfour's note and by quoting the opinions of editorial observers of widely differing sentiment, reflects public opinion in this country upon the subject in a most comprehensive way.

Among other articles of unusual interest in this week's issue are:

Keep Your Finger on the Pulse of Public Opinion

There is only one sure way to find out what the people think, either in America or elsewhere, and that is to compare the utterances of all the periodicals on any given question, and then to draw your own conclusions. This is a practical impossibility for any single individual, but it is done thoroughly and painstakingly for you each week in

THE LITERARY DIGEST, which presents the consensus of all opinions for your consideration in the form of brief and pointed quotations from publications of all shades. It does this impartially, recording all views, but advocating none. It is thus a veritable digest of all that is being thought, said, and done the world over, preserved in compact form for your reading.

NEWCASTLE LOST AT ITS OWN GAME

High School Quintet Defeated by Rushville, 50 to 15, in one of
Roughest Contests

CONTINUAL ROUGH WORK

Visitors Showed Lack of Practice
and Were Unable to Hit Bas-
kets When Under Them

In one of the roughest games of the season Rushville defeated Newcastle last night by the overwhelming score of 50 to 15. After the first ten minutes of play the final outcome was never in doubt and
while the game was rough Rushville
beat Newcastle at its own game.

Thorpe was the first to score for Rushville and then Pence came back with a field goal for Newcastle. The locals had some difficulty getting started but in the middle of the first half the break came and Newcastle
was fairly smothered under the baskets. The first half ended with the score 31 to 10.

Newcastle showed a lack of practice. The team was slightly heavier than Rushville and in the last half
the rough stuff started. Referee
Lyde overlooked a large part of the rough work and several near fights resulted. Wise, a guard on the Newcastle team, was one of the worst
offenders. Wise deliberately slapped Thorpe and as a result brought the crowd to its feet. Thorpe was down with Wise over him. As they started to get up Wise looked around and finding that the referee was not looking took a healthy slap at Thorpe.

The team work of the Rushville
team was the best the team has displayed this season. Martin and Thorpe did most of the scoring for Rushville, Thorpe getting twenty-four points and Martin eighteen points. Norman Reed played his best

a number of Maxwell automobiles by way of the company cancelling a neighbor dealer's contract at the time
when there were three carloads of cars shipped to him from the factory. We were offered these cars and, of course, took them.

At the same time we were offered the opportunity of increasing our contract with the company, thereby increasing our schedule of cars per month.

With these two explanations, we are now ready to tell you that we have in stock and between here and Detroit
thirty-nine (39) Maxwell Automobiles and all of them
purchased at the old price.

The factory has increased the price $40 per car. We intend to sell these 39 cars at the old price.

Roadster - - - - $595.00

We have 13 of these cars sold that have not been de-

There is only one way you can get one—give us your order with a deposit on it. We will keep the car for you until you are ready. Those who want to take advantage of this $40 saving can get in if they do so before these cars are all taken.

Remember, only 26 cars, and by the way, these are all splinter new ones just received—some of them, as before stated, not yet here.

floor, breaking up plays before they got started. Reed also scored six points.

The Newcastle guards displayed a better game than the forwards. The forwards were unable to work the ball down the floor and even when they did were unable to hit the basket. Several times the game became so rough that time had to be taken out. The team work of Rushville seemed to dazzle the Newcastle team. Time after time Martin work-entire floor by his dribbling and dodging. The lineup and summary:

A delightful meeting of the Social Dozen was held with Mrs. W. C. Smith at her home in North Main street yesterday afternoon when the twelve members spent the afternoon together socially. The dining table at which the guests were seated for the service of the delicious dinner was centered with a lovely bouquet of pink and white carnations, corresponding with the place cards marking the places for the guests. The next meeting of the club will be in two weeks with Mrs. J. T. Arbuckle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newhouse of Glenwood invited the members of the R. C. S. and a few other friends in to aid them in the celebration of their eleventh wedding anniversary on Wednesday evening. Having previously decided to surprise them, the guests followed out their plans and went an hour earlier, taking with them in their baskets the necessities for an oyster supper. After enjoying the beautiful supper, the guests were entertained with two clever contests, music and several games of cards during the course of the evening.

These street shapes typify some of the early spring model which are already being worn. The snug, round turban promise to be most popular. All signs of a "tilt" in wearing the hats are gone for this season, for fashion decrees they are to be worn exactly straight.

Much yellow in all the popular tones—citron, canary, gold, mustard, etc.—is in the sport hats showing the is featured both in straws and in fallies. Crowns of felt and cloth are associated with straw brims, crown tops of fabric are set into crowns of straw and the brims may be all of the straw or partly of straw and partly of fabric.

The mossy rough straws of last summer combine very effectively with plain fabrics for sports hat purposes, and very fine, supple straw braids are used in two or even more colors, the colors alternating throughout the whole hat and giving the effect of narrow stripes running round the hat. A little collapsible hat of this sort in smart coloring with a brim facing of plain silk and a cockade trimming of similar plain silk would be a comfortable and practicable possession.

Along with the various forms of high satin turbans come lower turbans innumerable in satin or faille or other silk or in silk and straw combined. Black, the dark browns and the deep blues are as usual, much in evidence in these small street hats and there are a good many purples and grays.

Purple and a medium old blue are much combined, and a clever little turban with the narrowest of cloche brims and the highest of crowns is all of purple satin, with its trimming a narrow band of old blue beads running around the high crown near its top and three tassels of old blue beads dangling from this band in front.

A small sailor shape with rather narrow sharply rolled brim is offered in satin and, though trying, is a jaunty and youthful model.

Wide brimmed floppy picture hats of finest erin are among the things offered for southern wear, and many of them seem to be of the turned up back-and-dropping-front lines. One of these models was of the palest sulphur yellow tone with a wreath of carnellia like roses shading exquisitely from the yellow of the hat down through deeper yellows into a fruity reddish pink and a ribbon of turquoise blue. Pure French this coloring and entirely successful.

Tulle hats and hats of tulle combined with straw or erin are always in the southern season showing, and there are quantities of such models in black, with trimming entirely of tulle or great bows of tulle bound narrowly in satin or feather trimmings, such as have been used on the winter's large dress hats—paradise, gowah, imitation egrets and all the other delicate plumage.

ing. Later, the hostess served a dainty luncheon. Guests enjoying this unique affair were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kenner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank George, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Matney, all from Little Flatrock, Dr. and Mrs. Walter of Glenwood, Miss Edith Caldwell and Wil Brown of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Lesner Allender of Arlington.

With a western woman running for president-general, the D. A. R. congress to be held in Washington in the month of April is of special interest to Indiana members of the D. A. R. Mrs. George Guernsey of Topeka, Kan., who is running for president-general has already been pledged the support of the local delegates, Mrs. Will Dill, regent and Mrs. Sarah Giffin, the latter being elected yesterday at the meeting held at the home of Mrs. Fred Caldwell in North Morgan street. Added interest comes with the fact that two Indiana women are also running for national offices, Mrs. John Newman Perry of Richmond for treasurer-general and Mrs. James Fowler of Lafayette for librarian-general.

At the meeting yesterday, ten dollars were pledged by the local society to the State Park fund. Officers were elected who will take their places in the fall of this year. Mrs. Frank Jones was elected regent; Mrs. A. L. Gary, vice-regent; Miss Emma Cassidy, recording secretary; Mrs. Wilbur Stiers, corresponding secretary; Miss Eva Ball, treasurer; Miss Alice Norris, registrar; Mrs. George Havens, chaplain; Mrs. D. D. VanOsdol, historian; and Mrs. Joe Amos, librarian.

Three new members were admitted into the local chapter yesterday, according to the report read by the registrar, Miss Emma Cassidy, that they had been admitted by the national society at Washington. Mrs. Estelle Jones Lee of Indianapolis, Mrs. Margaret Mitchell Huffman of Cleveland, Ohio and Mrs. Bernice Webb-Jackson of Anderson are the new members. Twenty members attended this annual business meeting of the society which was followed by the service of delicious refreshments. Hostesses at the meeting aside from Mrs. Caldwell were Miss Emma Blackledge, Mrs. Elizabeth Caldwell, Miss Charlotte Callaghan, and Mrs. J. D. Case.

The next meeting will be held February 15th at the home of Mrs.

Carl Beher when the program will be on colonial songs and "Guest Day" will be observed.

Mrs. Albert Capp will entertain the members of her card club at her home on Tuesday afternoon of next week.

A pleasant evening was enjoyed by the members of the card club entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winship at their hospitable country home south of the city last evening. At the end of several games of "500" the host and hostess served a dainty one course supper. Those enjoying the evening together were Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Harton, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Winship and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Winship, aside from the host and hostess.

Invitations have been received here for the coming marriage of Edmund Earl Hazelrigg, of Akron, Ohio, and Miss Eva Lewis, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Lewis of San Diego, Cal. The ceremony will be performed in the First Methodist church at San Diego on February 14th. Mr. and Mrs. Hazelrigg will make their home in Akron, where he is in the chemistry business. Mr. Hazelrigg is the son of Dyer Hazelrigg, who formerly lived here and is known in this city.

WOMAN IS FORCIBLY FED "Hunger-Striker" Given Food When She Becomes Unconscious

(By United Press.)
New York, Jan. 28.—After going five full days without food or water, Mrs. Ethel Byrne, hunger striking in protest against imprisonment for distributing birth control information, was forcibly fed early today.

Shortly after midnight her condition became critical. Physicians were summoned when she lapsed into unconsciousness. They inserted a tube into her throat and forced liquid food into her stomach. The reports today were that the woman's condition was as good as could be expected and denied that she had offered any resistance to forcible feeding.

FAIR DAMES ARE WAXING MOST ENTHUSIASTIC OVER WAX SEALS

Fashion's Latest Fad Causes Butcher, Baker and Candlestick Maker to be Doubly Stunned, Not Only to Have Their Bills Paid, But to Receive Their Checks in Envelopes Dashingy Sealed With Monogrammed Splotches of Vivid Wax.

(Written for United Press.)
By MARGARET MASON
Dame Fashion's latest fad's a seal; Not one that's in the Zoo, Or found around the frozen North, But on each billet doux No matter if it's writ to Tom Or Dick or Milly, who Receives it first must break the seal That's monogrammed with you.

New York, Jan. 27.—All the girls are waxing most enthusiastic over sealing wax. Even the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker, aside from their first natural surprise at having their bills paid at all, are doubly stunned at receiving their checks in envelopes dashingy sealed with monogrammed splotches of vivid wax.

You see, the dear girls are practicing on everybody just to perfect their art of making a good impression. Naturally by the time they write to Percy or Harold they want to make perfectly stunning impressions and early practice makes perfect as the copy books tell us.

Since, paradoxically in fashion, it is always the oldest that is the newest at the present moment it is no wonder that the gentle art of sealing correspondence has returned to stick. Cleopatra used to finish off her long papyrus rolls of love talk to Marc Antony with a gob of hot sealing wax duly stamped and with her royal scarab seal. I have no doubt that Eve herself scratched little stone billet doux to Adam when he was away for a week end and finished them up with a flourish of red clay on which was stamped her mark, carved on the tooth of a dinosaur us.

Great seals of state, government seals, royal seals and pontifical seals have always been the last word as "twerg," so what more fitting than that the last word of Fashion be a seal also.

With the lovely new paper embossed with a monogram or crest in a contrasting or darker tone in the upper left corner it is a last artistic touch to seal the envelopes, lined with the same color as the embossing, with the same shade of sealing wax in which the imprint of the smart crest or monogram is set.

Buff colored paper, monogrammed, envelope lined, and sealed in golden brown is a favorite color scheme, as is pearl grey combined either with a darker grey, silver or purple.

An attractive Wedge wood effect is obtained with blue paper bordered in a tiny line of white with a white monogram and sealed with white wax. Lettuce green paper combined with the white in the same manner is also charming and refreshing although apt to have a cooling effect even on an ardent swain.

Of course the perfection of the color scheme is further carried out by having the tapers where one melts the wax partake of the same chosen hue and the quill pen wherewith one writes must also perforce be colored likewise. Really the only blow to the color scheme is handed out heartlessly by the United States of America. It is indeed very inconsiderate of the government not to have different toned stamps to fit in with the color scheme of grey and purple notes.

The soul of the artistic letter writer must writhe indeed to set a red stamp in the margin of a Wedgewood envelope. Really the only way out is to be extravagant and use five cent stamps on the blue notes and a collection of one cent one's on the lettuce effects.

Lovers ought to welcome the return of the sealing wax and the seal with particular avidity. The state of the seal will so quickly indicate to their palpitating hearts just what to expect from the inside of the envelope. If the note be full of ardent and flaming words and passionate burning phrases the wax seal will be in a melted gooey state. If on the other hand the tone of the letter be cold and cruel and spurnful the wax seal will proclaim its crest or monogram in frigid perfection.

Early Spring Suit Suitable for Girls

The box plaits in the coat that continue through the lines in the skirts are particularly becoming to this girlish figure. Her practical early spring suit is of colored soft wool material. The rolled collar lined with broadcloth is just as becoming when thrown back. Her patent boots, for patent leather is to be good again this spring, her headed bag and the straight little satin turban complete the street costume. Rumor says the skirts are to be longer and narrower.

Corn Oysters

One teacup milk, 3 eggs, pint of corn grated fine, a little salt, and as much flour as will make a slightly stiff batter. Beat the eggs the whites and yolks separately. To the yolks of the eggs add milk, corn, salt and flour, beat the whole well and stir in the whites of the eggs drop this batter, a spoonful at a time, into hot lard and fry until done.

Quig. "The man who took a large sum of money to defend him; and the defense he made; the condition of politics in Lyncing county that seemed to make necessary a hanging; the personnel of the jury that found the verdict, the question of serving alcoholic drink to jurymen on duty; the rush verdict of Saturday night, just before the clock struck twelve. But John Erble was condemned to die.

"On the seventh of July, God came to John Erble in Williamsport jail. His transformation was a miracle. I saw him the day before the execution. I never saw the whole of heaven let down into a man before. The clearest vision I have ever had of Christ was in the face of John Erble. He demonstrated, absolutely, that perfect love casteth out fear. From him had gone all passion, all malice, all pride of life, all fear and in their place God had taken up His abode.

"No man came into contact with John Erble within the last six months of his life who did not feel the presence of a Divine power. From his presence men went impelled to the highest and best within them to intervene with Governor Tener. Strongest and truest and most conscientious men of Williamsport refused to give up their efforts to save the county, the blotch of John Erble's murder even up to the hour set for execution. But Governor Tener was flint.

"I have since thought that the heart of Governor Tener was hardened that he might do down in history as the man who let John Erble hang. That out of it might come the emancipation of Pennsylvania from capital punishment.

"A state that is negligent at the cradle, and reckless in its licenses, and indifferent to prostitution and Godless in politics, has no right to be puritanical at the gallows.

"I am opposed to official hanging, states that are false to the home, under pretense of Divine law, by states that are false to the home, untrue to society, and destroyers of all the heritage of God, even to His Holy day.

"The state that provides drink which precipitates murder is as much a party to the murder as the poor wretch that fires the gun—the state hangs the poor wretch and talks of the Justice of God. It is a sacrifice."

SEVERAL BILLS ARE ON WAY
public interest, perhaps, are the bills to create a State Highway Commission and Conservation Commission and to repeal the Three Mile Road Law.
The State Highway Commission is being bitterly fought in committees of both the House and the Senate by the Contractors' Lobby, which is masquerading as representative of the farmers of the State.
Governor Goodrich has made it

plain to every one who has consulted with him that he will veto any bill on this subject which does not contain the proper safeguards and which does not make it wholly impossible for contractors to dominate the letting of contracts and the construction of permanent highways.
Practically the only opposition to the bill to create a Conservation Commission comes from the small coterie of Democratic office holders who think they may lose their jobs because under the operation of the Conservation Law they may not be able to qualify as exporters in their respective departments.

Few measures pending before the General Assembly have brought to Indianapolis a bigger and more determined lobby than the bill to repeal the Three-Mile Road Law. Millions of dollars have been spent in the construction of roads under the Three-Mile Road Law since the law was passed and taxes have mounted higher and higher every year. According to Governor Goodrich, this would not be so wholly inexcusable were it not for the fact that the public money has been wasted because contractors operating in collusion with County Commissioners in the various counties not only rarely have built the roads according to specifications but have used inferior material, making repairs an enormous burden.
One of the most sensational disclosures in connection with the hearing of the Three-Mile Road Law was brought out Tuesday night, before the House Roads Committee. An attorney of Richmond admitted to the Committee that he had received attorneys fees as high as $500 for preparing single petitions for the construction of Three-Mile roads. Every one acquainted with the preparation of a petition under the Three-Mile Road Law knows that this is a wholly unwarranted and unreasonable charge. Under the present law, the attorney's fees are paid by the county. Governor Goodrich has suggested that if it is impossible to defeat the Contractors' Lobby now operating in the State Capitol, the next best thing to do is to amend the Three-Mile Road Law so that attorneys' fees will be limited to $10 for the preparation of each petition and that this fee shall be paid by the petitioners rather than by the county, thus putting an end to at least one of the glaring abuses under the law.
There is a formidable lobby now operating in the State Capitol to defeat the enactment of the Bill to simplify the method of removing from office public officials who refuse or fail to perform their duty. Liquor interests furnish the bone and sinew for this lobby. They are opposed to the bill because the fear of removal from office is likely to bring about a more rigid enforcement of the law and because the profits from the liquor business in part depend strictly on law violations.
There is a well defined and rather accurately authenticated report that the Democratic members of the State Senate in caucus have agreed to oppose practically every measure favored by Governor Goodrich which will amount to a large measure of

The Sultan of Turkey sent felicitations. He is too old to make the trip.
Clubs and patriotic organizations throughout Germany are celebrating the day. The demonstrations, in contrast to those of the years before the war, are of a solemn nature.

Dachshunds
The dachshund is a long narrow dog that spends all its time growing in one direction.
Its face is so far from the stomach it has to hire a guide so its meals won't get lost. And it has the start eating at 3 in the afternoon to get its food to its appetite by dinner time.
The dachshund is the only dog known that can stand on the front porch and sit down in the kitchen.
One half of a dachshund can be coming home while the other half is still going up town.
The dachshund sags badly in the middle because it has only a few legs. The only thing that makes a dachshund jealous is centipede.

economy and a greater measure of efficiency in the administration of the State Government. The Democrats have taken the short-sighted view that the enactment of this measure and the very apparent reduction in the cost of State Government which they will make certain are almost certain to result in another Republican victory in 1920.
Governor Goodrich has made it perfectly clear to the members of the General Assembly and to the assembled Lobbyists, where he has been able to get in touch with them, that he will accept no compromises which are likely to defeat the very purposes of the legislation he has recommended. He has done everything in his power to induce members of the General Assembly to support the program he has outlined; but if worse comes to worse, the Governor of Indiana is prepared to fight.

There is a formidable lobby now operating in the State Capitol to defeat the enactment of the Bill to simplify the method of removing from office public officials who refuse or fail to perform their duty. Liquor interests furnish the bone and sinew for this lobby. They are opposed to the bill because the fear of removal from office is likely to bring about a more rigid enforcement of the law and because the profits from the liquor business in part depend strictly on law violations.
There is a well defined and rather accurately authenticated report that the Democratic members of the State Senate in caucus have agreed to oppose practically every measure favored by Governor Goodrich which will amount to a large measure of economy and a greater measure of efficiency in the administration of the State Government. The Democrats have taken the short-sighted view that the enactment of this measure and the very apparent reduction in the cost of State Government which they will make certain are almost certain to result in another Republican victory in 1920.

Governor Goodrich has made it perfectly clear to the members of the General Assembly and to the assembled Lobbyists, where he has been able to get in touch with them, that he will accept no compromises which are likely to defeat the very purposes of the legislation he has recommended. He has done everything in his power to induce members of the General Assembly to support the program he has outlined; but if worse comes to worse, the Governor of Indiana is prepared to fight.

Madison, Wis.—Mrs. Oscar Day, of 1606 Monona Ave., Fair Oaks, this town, says: "Before my baby was born, I suffered terribly with womanly troubles and nervousness, and was living in a state of fear all the time. One day, an old friend of mine, who, by the way, is a nurse, and goes around to all cases, brought me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and told me to keep on taking it right along. I did, and felt much better after the first bottle. I kept on taking it, and had as little trouble as anybody could wish for. Feeling very good now.
There never was a better medicine for women than Cardui, and I will recommend it to any one who is in need of it. This nurse uses Cardui with her patients, so it is well known all around here.
I am never without a bottle of Cardui in my home."
We urge you to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, for your troubles. It will help you over the hard places just as it has thousands of other women.
Don't delay. Begin taking Cardui today. You won't regret it. NCHS
